Objectives & Goals

To identify current industry practice and the training and/or competence requirements of practitioners within Plant Occupations for depiction in the Training Standards. It is the intention that approved standards revised or developed as part of this review will be available in the public domain at:

<https://www.citb.co.uk/standards-and-delivering-training/training-standards/short-training-standards-search/>

This work is undertaken using levy payer funds and must comply with the CITB Standards Quality Assurance Process.

Function & Responsibilities

Working Groups will discuss, review, and write Plant Training Standards content considering:

- industry best practice
- learning outcomes
- assessment

Working Group members will have demonstrable current practitioner knowledge and/or occupational expertise in the occupational area and be able to articulate a clear view of the occupational skills and knowledge.

Meeting Format

All meetings will predominantly be held online via Microsoft Teams and will be recorded. Recordings will only be used for meeting notes and will be deleted in line with CITB retention policies.

The Working Group

Accountability

- Facilitator
The facilitator shall be an identified member of CITB staff and preside at all meetings of the working group to facilitate the decision-making and administrative process.
- Chairperson
Members will elect a chairperson to represent the Working Group in the introduction meeting.
- Attendance
Members will be required to attend all meetings or provide apologies in advance, and will be given the opportunity to provide feedback in advance of the meeting for the remaining members of the group to consider. Members shall make every effort to attend all meetings. Any non-notified absence could result in a member's removal from the Working Group.
- Sufficient Representation
Meetings will be considered representative when there are two-thirds of members present. If there is insufficient representation then other sources of information may be used to provide content as and where needed.
- Decision-Making
In line with the remit of the group, decisions will normally be arrived at by a consensus of those members present. Organisations represented by multiple members will have one vote per organisation. If a consensus cannot be reached then the deciding vote shall go to the elected chairperson.

Communication

- The working group should ensure that it has effective communication with all relevant key stakeholders.
- Working group contact email addresses will be provided to the full working group in order to facilitate the engagement and consultation process.

Code of Conduct

- During the course of a meeting, if a potential conflict of interest arises in relation to content of a training standard, the member concerned must alert the facilitator and withdraw, whilst the impacted content is discussed. This will be noted on the recording for live meetings.
- The Facilitator shall be responsible for ensuring that the business of the meeting is conducted in a courteous and professional manner and shall have the right to adjourn a meeting or temporarily exclude any individual or individuals whose conduct falls below acceptable standards.
